DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Evening Post.

The Negro on the Fence.

Harken to what I now relate,
And on its moral meditate
A wagoner, with grist for mill,
Was jostled at bottom of a hill,
A brawny negro passed that way,
So stout he might a lion slay.
"I'll put my shoulder to the wheels
If you'll hustle your horse's heels"
So said the African, and made
As if to render timely aid.
"No," cried the wagoner, "Stand back!
I'll take no help from one that's black;"
And, to the negro's great surprise,
Flourished his whip before his eyes.
Our "darkey" quick "skedaddled" thence,
And sat upon the wayside fence
Then went the wagoner to work,
And lashed his horses to a jerk;
But all his efforts were in vain
With shout and oath and whip and rein,
The wheels budged not a single inch,
And tighter grew the wagoner's pinch.
Directly there came by a child
With toiling step and vision wild.
"Father," said she, with hunger dread,
"We famish for the want of bread"
Then spake the negro: "If you will,
I'll help your horses to the mill."
The wagoner, in grievous plight,
Now swore and tugged with all his might,
But sure the negro wasn't smitten,
And pliably ordered him to go
To a certain place th'd's down below.
Then rushing came the wagoner's wife,
To save her own and infant's life.
By robbers was their homestead sacked,
And smoke and blood their pillage tracked.
Here stops our tale. When last observed
The wagoner was still "cussing"
In mud at bottom of the hill,
But bent on going to the mill
And hard by, not a rod from thence,
The negro sat upon the fence.

Organization of a New Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.

Correspondence of the N. Y. World.—The city seldom sees a livelier day than this has been. The avenue has been literally teaming all day, for not less than two thousand waggons, comprising miles upon miles of mule trains, have rushed through the streets, in pursuit of the tramping legions of infantry, who have been marching all day and all night—who knows where?—common rumor sayeth after the ubiquitous "Stonewall" Jackson.

Sigel's army corps, for the past few days stationed three miles beyond Chain Bridge, passed through the city, and—disappeared. The men looked tough and brown, and marched soldly and firmly.

FROM UP THE RIVER.

The reported crossing of a large force at Point of Rocks on Friday is fully credited and the reports brought by citizens from the line of the river are received with intense anxiety. Those most likely to know regard the situation of affairs above the city as critical, and any moment may bring us the intelligence of a fierce and desperate battle. There are many cool-headed men here, and of high military rank too, who favor the enemy's crossing with but little opposition. They think that in that step he will most assuredly overreach himself and be destroyed.

The best evidence that something is going on is the fact that a large corps of lately unemployed newspaper men have suddenly left town with a view to smuggling themselves into the lines of the army. They usually smell the battle afar off, and it may be that on this occasion they are not mistaken.

RE ORGANIZATION.

It is not contraband to say that the work of re-organizing the whole army near here is proceeding as rapidly as the exigencies of the service will permit. New dispositions of regiments and brigades are being made, and new divisions are appearing not only on the records but on the field. Old divisions are being recuperated by the addition of new brigades, and many brigades will be swelled in number by the addition of new regiments. Thus the experience of the old troops will be made as useful as possible, and the new men, by direct and constant association with veteran troops, will soon become efficient. This is the best that could be done, so long as new regiments are raised at all, and old ones remain unfilled. Soon again we shall have a quarter of a million of real soldiers.

IN MOTION.

Porter's and Franklin's army corps moved at sundown last evening in a northwesterly direction. These heroes of a dozen conflicts are readier than ever for a renewal of battle, in the hope that victory will finally crown their efforts.

RECUPERATION.

I rode through Franklin's corps yesterday afternoon, and was agreeably surprised to see the excellent condition of men and guns. And the spirits of the men are nobler and more buoyant than ever. The regiments, as a general thing, are likewise fuller than when they were on the peninsula. Some who, after the seven days' battles, could muster scarce two hundred and fifty men, now have in their ranks twice that number. Large numbers of convalescent men are daily returning, and, unless reduced by fighting, the old regiments will, in thirty days, have a larger number of men fit for duty than they have had for some months.

CLEAR THE FRONT.

Orders have been given to destroy all buildings in Virginia which in any way obstruct the range of our guns on the fortifications.

NOT TAKEN.

A gentleman who has been four days in the enemy's lines, assisting our wounded, has returned, and says it is not true that any of the volunteer nurses were captured, or that the enemy captured the negro drivers of the ambulances.

GEN. POPE.

From the Washington Star, Sept 7.

Maj. Gen. John Pope has been relieved from the command of the army of Virginia, and ordered to report to the war department for other duty. His late army has been consolidated with that of Gen. Burnside's, and all placed under Maj. Gen. McClellan's command. Gen. Burnside continues in command of his own troops as one of the corps de armee of the consolidated army.

We have further to add that a considerable portion of the consolidated army is already in motion, and bids fair to meet the rebels again in battle as soon as they are reached, wherever they may be in force—a point upon which there is great uncertainty here at this time.

A mule driver in the army was swearing at and kicking a span of balky mules, when the general, who was annoyed at his profanity, ordered him to stop.

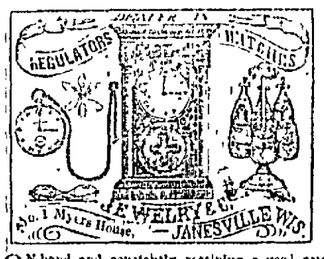

"Who are you?"

"Commander of the brigade."

"I'm commander of these mules, and I'll do as I please, or resign, and you can have my place!"

The general passed on.

Referee's Sale of the Beloit and Madison Railroad.

In the Circuit Court of Green County, State of Wisconsin, on change of venue from Rock County.

The Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company, and George S. Robbins and Julius Wadsworth, trustees of the bond holders of the Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, against Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, Marine Bank of Chicago, Stephen F Gale, John B Funk, Charles Kennedy, John Hackett, Charles P Williams, Simeon Mills, and E A Foot.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of a decretal order entered in the above entitled cause, on the second day of September, 1862, at Monroe, Green county, Wisconsin, by Hiram Nuggle, Judge of the circuit court of Green county, on change of venue from Rock county by consent of all parties in record, both plaintiffs and defendants, in which said decree or order so entered by consent, I was appointed a referee to sell and dispose of the premises and property in question, on giving five days public notice of the time and place of such sale, by publishing said notice in the Janesville Daily Gazette, at Janesville, Wisconsin, and to carry out the terms and provisions of said decree or order, I will, on Thursday, the 18th day of September, 1862, sell at 5 o'clock p m of said day, at the Hyatt House, in the city of Janesville aforesaid, in accordance with the terms of said decree, "the Beloit and Madison Railroad, together with all and singular the right of way, turn outs, switches, bridges, culverts fences, track, superstructure, depot grounds, and buildings, station grounds, and buildings, and all machinery, and all appurtenances and appendages pertaining to said Railroad in any way or manner, and all real and personal property of every name and nature owned by, or belonging to, said Railroad Company, together with all the rights, franchises, and immunities belonging or appertaining to said company. Said Railroad, as now built and operated, extending from the state line at Beloit in the county of Rock, to Magnolia in said county of Rock."

TERMS OF SALE.

Said Railroad is to be sold to satisfy the interest due, since the first day of July, A D 1863, upon one hundred and seventy bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, of the said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, owned and held by the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company; and by the consent of the other bondholders, and the said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, and the stockholders thereof, for the purpose of reorganizing and recapitalizing said last mentioned company.

The terms will be cash, but I am authorized to receive the bonds or coupons of said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, to be applied upon said bid, if the same be bid off by or sold to the bondholders, as is provided for in said decree.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the Evening Post.

The Negro on the Fence.

Harken to what I now relate,
And on its moral meditate.

A wagoner, with grist for mill,
Was stalled at bottom of a hill.
A brawny negro passed that way.
So stout he might 'a' been slim stay.
"I'll put my shoulder to the wheels
If you'll hastir your horse's heels!"
So said the African, and made
As if to render timely aid.
"No," cried the wagoner, "Stand back!
I'll take no help from one that's black!"
And, to the negro's great surprise,
Flourished his whip before his eyes.
Our "darkey" quick "skeedaddled" thence,
And sat upon the wayside fence.
Then went the wagoner to work.
And lashed his horses to a jerk;
But all his efforts were in vain.
With shout and oath and whip and rein,
The wheels budged not a single inch,
And tighter grew the wagoner's pinch.
Directly there came by a child
With trifling step and vision wild.
"Father," said she, with hunger drear,
"We famish for the want of bread."
Then spake the negro: "If you will,
I'll help your horses to the mill."
The wagoner, in grievous plight,
Now swore and raved with all his might,
Because the negro wasn't white;
And plainly ordered him to go
To a certain place that's down below.
Then rushing came the wagoner's wife,
To save her own and infant's life.
By robbers was their homestead sacked,
And smoke and blood their pillage tracked.
Here stops our tale. What best observed
The wagoner was still "conserved"
In mud at bottom of the hill,
But bent on going to the mill.
And hard by, not a rod from thence,
The negro sat upon the fence.

Organization of a New Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.

Correspondence of the N. Y. World.—The city seldom sees a livelier day than this has been. The avenue has been literally teaming all day, for not less than two thousand waggons, comprising miles upon miles of mule trains, have rushed through the streets, in pursuit of the tramping legions of infantry, who have been marching all day and all night—who knows where? —common rumor sayeth after the ubiquitous "Stonewall" Jackson.

Sigel's army corps, for the past few days stationed three miles beyond Chain Bridge, passed through the city, and—disappeared. The men looked tough and brown, and marched solidly and firmly,

FROM UP THE RIVER.

The reported crossing of a large force at Point of Rocks on Friday is fully credited and the reports brought by citizens from the line of the river are received with intense anxiety. Those most likely to know regard the situation of affairs above the city as critical, and any moment may bring us the intelligence of a fierce and desperate battle. There are many cool-headed men here, and of high military rank too, who favor the enemy's crossing with but little opposition. They think that in that step he will most assuredly overreach himself and be destroyed.

The best evidence that something is going on is the fact that a large corps of lately unemployed newspaper men have suddenly left town with a view to smuggling themselves into the lines of the army. They usually smell the battle afar off, and it may be that on this occasion they are not mistaken.

RE-ORGANIZATION.

It is not contraband to say that the work of re-organizing the whole army near here is proceding as rapidly as the exigencies of the service will permit. New dispositions of regiments and brigades are being made, and new divisions are appearing not only on the records but on the field. Old divisions are being recuperated by the addition of new brigades, and many brigades will be swelled in number by the addition of new regiments. Thus the experience of the old troops will be made as useful as possible, and the new men, by direct and constant association with veteran troops, will soon become efficient. This is the best that could be done, so long as new regiments are raised at all, and old ones remain unfilled. Soon again we shall have a quarter of a million of real soldiers.

IN MOTION.

Porter's and Franklin's army corps moved at sundown last evening in a northwesterly direction. These heroes of a dozen conflicts are readier than ever for a renewal of battle, in the hope that victory will finally crown their efforts.

RECUPERATION.

I rode through Franklin's corps yesterday afternoon, and was agreeably surprised to see the excellent condition of men and guns. And the spirits of the men are nobler and more buoyant than ever. The regiments, as a general thing, are likewise fuller than when they were on the peninsula. Some who, after the seven days' battles, could muster scarce two hundred and fifty men, now have in their ranks twice that number. Large numbers of convalescent men are daily returning, and, unless reduced by fighting, the old regiments will, in thirty days, have a larger number of men fit for duty than they have had for some months.

CLEAR THE FRONT.

Orders have been given to destroy all buildings in Virginia which in any way obstruct the range of our guns on the fortifications.

NOT TAKEN.

A gentleman who has been four days in the enemy's lines, assisting our wounded, has returned, and says it is not true that any of the volunteer nurses were captured, or that the enemy captured the negro drivers of the ambulances.

GEN. POPE.

From the Washington Star, Sept. 7.

Maj. Gen. John Pope has been relieved from the command of the army of Virginia, and ordered to report to the war department for other duty. His late army has been consolidated with that of Gen. Burnside's, and all placed under Maj. Gen. McClellan's command. Gen. Burnside continues in command of his own troops as one of the corps de armee of the consolidated army.

We have further to add that a considerable portion of the consolidated army is already in motion, and bids fair to meet the rebels again in battle as soon as they are reached, wherever they may be in force—a point upon which there is great uncertainty here at this time.

A mule driver in the army was swearing at and kicking a span of balky mules, when the general, who was annoyed at his profanity, ordered him to stop.

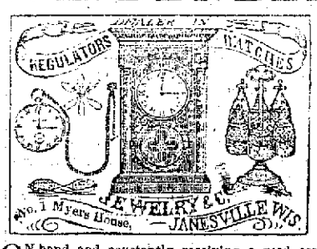

"Who are you?"

"Commander of the brigade."

"I'm commander of these mules, and I'll do as I please, or resign, and you can have my place!"

The general passed on.

Referee's Sale of the Beloit and Madison Railroad.

In the Circuit Court of Green County. State of Wisconsin, on change of venue from Rock County.

The Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company, and George S Robbins and Julius Wadsworth, Trustees of the bond-holders of the Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, against Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, Marine Bank of Chicago, Stephen F Gale, John B Turner, Gurdney Kennedy, John Hackett, Charles P Williams, Simeon Mills, and E A Foot.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a decretal order entered in the above entitled cause, on the second day of September, 1862, at Monroe, Green county, Wisconsin, by David Noggle, Judge of the circuit court of Green county, on change of venue from Rock county, by consent of all parties interested, both plaintiffs and defendants, in which said decree or order so entered by consent, I was appointed a referee to sell and dispose of the premises and property in question, on giving five days public notice of the time and place of such sale, by publishing said notice in the Janesville Daily Gazette, at Janesville, Wisconsin, and to carry out the terms and provisions of said decree or order. I will, on Thursday, the 18th day of September, 1862, sell at 3 o'clock p. m. of said day, at the Hyatt House, in the city of Janesville aforesaid, in accordance with the terms of said decree, "the Beloit and Madison Railroad, together with all and singular the right of way, turn outs, switches, bridges, culverts, fences, track, superstructure, depot grounds, and buildings, station grounds, and buildings, and all machinery, and all appurtenances and appendages pertaining to said Railroad in any way or manner, and all real and personal property of every name and nature owned by, or belonging to, said Railroad Company, together with all the rights, franchises, and immunities, belonging or appertaining to said company. Said Railroad, as now built and operated, extending from the state line at Beloit in the county of Rock, to Magnolia in said county of Rock."

TERMS OF SALE.

Said Railroad is to be sold to satisfy the interest due, since the first day of July, A. D. 1853, upon one hundred and seventy bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, of the said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, owned and held by the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad Company; and by the consent of the other bondholders, and the said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, and the stockholders thereof, for the purpose of reorganizing and recapitalizing said last mentioned company.

The terms will be cash, but I am authorized to receive the bonds or coupons of said Beloit and Madison Railroad Company, to be applied upon said bid, if the same be bid off by or sold to the bondholders, as is provided for in said decree.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected thro'out every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the republicans in electing delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

The following is a copy of a dispatch received last evening, (Wednesday):

FORT DONELSON, Sept. 10, 1862.

To EDITORS JANESVILLE GAZETTE:—We have recaptured Clarksville, and returned to Fort Donelson. No serious casualties in the Thirteenth. WM. RUGER.

The News.

The rebels are reported to be moving from Frederick towards Hagerstown, having arrived within a mile and a half of that place. Jackson leads the column. The direction taken by them indicates that they are not going to Baltimore or Philadelphia. It may be that they will recross the Potomac at Harper's Ferry, and, after having supplied themselves with food and plunder, go back by the Shenandoah valley.

Possibly they mean to stop some time in the Cumberland valley, as their soldiers declare. Gen. McClellan commands the army sent against them. He was at Rockville Monday, ten miles from Washington.

The intelligence from Cincinnati is exciting. If a battle took place this morning, as predicted, it would have been known before this time.

The True Sign of Military Vigor.

It would naturally be supposed that in times of disaster to the Union arms, the president would think of the aid to the cause which might be obtained by emancipating the slaves. In hours of adversity the nation ought look around for friends, and who would more likely lend us a helping hand than the four millions of bondmen who hope for the boon of freedom at our hands?

Perhaps the President does think of this matter, but he does not act, and thought without action is dead. Those who are specially the defenders of all that the administration does, and every thing it does not do, tell us that it would be ridiculous to issue proclamations of freedom, now, when we are beaten, and the enemy in triumphant force at the very doors of the capitol. So, according to these apologists of do-nothing, now is not the time; wait awhile till we have power to enforce a decree of emancipation, say they.

But we shall hear these same persons, on occasions when the armies of the Union are victorious, reason somewhat in this way: "Now that treason is put down in this region, a proclamation of emancipation is useless, because we do not need the aid of the slave—we have defeated the rebels without them; let us conciliate the slaveholding rebels who have "taken the oath," so that they will be friends, and become again obedient citizens; if we abolish slavery now, we shall exasperate them so that they will rebel again; let us, who hate proclamations, issue just this one, of amnesty for all past offences; we then shall induce repentant traitors to vote with us in the great Union party which we are forming."

In this way it will be perceived, that this class of ultra conservatives, mean to get rid of emancipation altogether, and of all punishment of traitors. They are willing to risk the very existence of the government to see if they cannot put down the rebellion without destroying slavery. No matter what ruin and devastation of life and property stares us in the face, they are looking forward to the political status of the rebels, "after the deluge." Until this idea is driven out of the brains of our president and his cabinet, if it exists there, as it does in the thoughts of their most approved defenders, the same series of disasters will follow our arms. Emancipation may not now be able to save us; it may be too late, because the four millions of slaves are losing all confidence in us, but we desire to see it adopted as the policy of the administration, because it would be a sign of vigor, an index to tell us that earnest, unsparing war is to be waged upon the vile enemies of our country. And until we see this sign, we shall have doubts of the thorough determination of our military authorities to use every means allowed us by the laws of war. When we see emancipation, all other thing will follow, and not till then.

AN ADJOURNED COURT.—The circuit court of Green county was adjourned last week because none of the attorneys had a license, and no provision had been made for obtaining one.

General Pope's Report.

The official report of Gen. Pope has been published by himself, after the war department had refused to receive it. He charges Fitz John Porter with refusing to obey a written order to attack the enemy in flank, on Friday, whereby Jackson would have been defeated, before the forces of Lee could have reached him. Gen. Pope als affirms that McClellan refused to supply him with forage when his horses had been without food for two days, unless he would send wagons and a guard to bring them up, while Alexandria was swarming with McClellan's troops. He also accuses Gen. Griffin with withholding his command from the contest, and while the battle was raging occupied his attention in denouncing the commanding general to a promiscuous crowd. Gen. Pope attributes the whole disaster to the failure of the army of the Potomac to co-operate with him.

The country will be as much chagrined at this disclosure, as at the defeat. These are the generals to whom the destiines of the country are confided! Can we have confidence in the future while disobedience of orders, by high officers, goes unpunished? If Gen. Pope has made false charges, why give him another command? If he tells the truth, why not order McClellan, Porter and Griffin to trial and punishment? Is the President afraid to permit an examination into this case? We cannot answer these questions, but they suggest themselves to everybody.

☞ The Volksblatt of Cincinnati, asserts that at the battle of Warrenton Gen. Sigel did attempt to shoot Gen. McDowell for treachery. The story had before this account appeared been generally discredited, but the Rochester (New York) Democrat bears the following independent testimony to its truth. It says: "We are told, on what seems to be good authority, that there is a letter in this city written by an officer who was an eye witness of the circumstance which he describes, stating that during the fight Gen. McDowell took from his pocket a white handkerchief which he attached to the end of his sword and waved it aloft as if signaling to some one. Gen. Sigel observing the act, rode up and demanded McDowell's reason for such conduct. McDowell replied that it was none of his business, at the same time cursing him as a 'd—d Dutchman;' whereupon Sigel drew a pistol and fired at McDowell, the ball striking the latter's sword hilt and glancing off."

The Western Indian Troubles.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 9.

A gentleman just from Council Bluffs informs me that the rumors of Indian troubles and the alarm of the inhabitants are not exaggerated. Many citizens of Sioux City and settlers of the surrounding country are leaving, some of whom had arrived at Council Bluffs before he left. His opinion is that it is a combined movement of the western and north-western tribes. He bases it partly on the fact that tribes hitherto hostile are now friends. A large delegation of Otoes, from Kansas, lately passed up to visit the Sioux, Pawnees and Puncas. Long at war, they have recently become reconciled. This gentleman has been long on the frontier, and his opinions are entitled to weight. Great apprehension, he informs me, is felt at Omaha.

A party of the 29th regiment has gone to Sioux City. The remainder will go when the companies form. Five hundred mounted men the governor is authorized to send by the legislature. The state will furnish equipments.

A company of mounted men to go to the frontier from here is full. It will start day after to-morrow.

Five families passed through here to-day from frontier counties. They are moving out in consequence of the Indian troubles.

LEAVENWORTH, Ks., Sept. 9.

Intelligence from Dacotah and the Upper Missouri indicates serious Indian hostilities. Gov. Jayne, of Dacotah, issued a proclamation on the 30th ult., calling on the settlers to organize. Two men, Judge Amsdon and his son, had already been killed. Gen. Blunt received a dispatch yesterday from Gov. Jayne, dated Sioux City, Sept. 6, which says the Indians made an attack that morning within three miles of Yankton, the capital of the territory. The courier bringing the dispatch to Sioux City, with an escort of ten men, had a fight with twenty Indians ten miles from Yankton. The governor calls for a regiment and arms and ammunition, as a general Indian war is feared.

OMAHA, N. T., Sept. 9.

Powerful bands of Indians are threatening the northern settlements of this territory. The settlers are getting alarmed and coming in with their families. There is no excitement and no cause for alarm in this locality.

Acting Gov. Paddock has telegraphed the Secretary of War, offering sufficient militia to hold the Indians in check along the Nebraska border. The militia is being rapidly organized and drilled.

It is believed that a moderate force, properly distributed along the border, will be an adequate provision against Indian incursions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.

The British Colonist, of the 3d, believes that a war is pending between the whites and Indians on the northwest coast.

Living not a thousand miles from here are an old man and his son, both of whom are a little given to "cups," a very unusual thing in this vicinity, by the way. A short time since it happened they became very "happy" together, and after a short season of "enjoyment" together, something occurred to ruffle the even "current of their minds"—in other words, they got mad at each other. Bitter words passed between them, till finally the son, enraged, exclaimed:

"Father, you're a miserable ol' coot; if ye 'as dead I wouldn't go t'yr fun'ral."

"Now, see 'ere, Ward," replied the old man, "you shouldn't feel so torze me. I don't feel so torze you. Now if you should die, I'd tend yer fun'ral—it's pleasure."

The Buffalo Express relates the following "affecting" incident:

A gentleman of this city wishing to present one of the officers of the 110th regiment with a useful and handsome testimonial of his regard, purchased a splendid field glass (price $50) for that purpose. He then proceeded to the camp, and having found his man, who was sitting at a table hard at work writing, he laid the glass before him and made the following stirring and well-timed presentation speech:

"There's that thing."

To which the surprised recipient replied by rising, and after looking at the present with admiring eye, exclaimed:

"Golly, aint it nice."

In California a "shower" continued about three weeks, when it "set in to rain."

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, Sept. 10.

Special to Chicago Journal.—On Friday last the 6th Illinois cavalry, under Colonel Grierson, met a body of confederates sixteen miles from Holly Springs, Mississippi, and a sharp engagement ensued, in which the confederates lost a lieutenant.

The same federal force, on Sunday, had a fight at Coldwater, with a large force of rebels, which lasted several hours. The enemy was repulsed and driven across the stream, the Union forces capturing a large number of horses, negroes and eighty prisoners. The confederates were seen to carry away their dead while the battle was progressing.

The Vicksburg Whig, of the 2d, says that sixty-five Yankee prisoners were paroled yesterday, taken ten miles up the river, and put on board the Lancaster. It also reports the Essex at Natchez, together with a transport called the Anglo-American.

Since the recent disasters in Virginia, the Grenada Appeal confidently expects an armistice, to be followed by a compromise, and terms of permanent dissolution.

When our forces entered Clarksville they fired on the rebels, who ran off, leaving behind some horses, arms, a hundred boxes of hard bread, two hundred boxes of crackers, and one thousand bales of hay. Several stragglers were made prisoners.

Colonels Lowe and Ransom, with their forces, returned to Fort Donelson last night.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The news from the front is, and it comes from a reliable source, that Gen. Heath and staff, with 1000 cavalry and two regiments of infantry, are two miles south of Fort Mitchell, and in plain sight of the opening of the woods. The force beyond them is not known. Skirmishing is going on. Our pickets have brought in two of the rebel mounted scouts. The enemy are getting in position. Our army are drawn up in line of battle, and are laying on their arms. A fight is expected by daylight.

A flag of truce met Gen. Heath, fifteen miles from the city yesterday afternoon. It covered nurses going to Richmond to take care of our wounded, etc. Heath refused but Kirby Smith passed it.

Our pickets are now in sight of the enemy's pickets about twelve miles from the city.

There is a rumor that the rebels are approaching the river four miles below. Many think there will be a fight before night, and others regard the movement as a feint.

Wallace will soon seek a fight if the rebels do not come up.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

The steamer Columbia has arrived.

The Havana correspondent of the associated press states that the pirate steamer Ovito, or Florida now called, is a wooden steamer of slow speed and has iron plates in her hold to be plated with. She left Nassau August 6th for Green Key, where she mounted her armament of three 68-pounders, and then went to Cardinas, where she was ordered off by the authorities, who placed a war steamer on each side of her, allowing but the doctor to leave her or go aboard. A number of seamen from Havana had arrived there, and were arrested and imprisoned. Yellow fever prevailed aboard. She has lost many of her crew by sickness, desertion, etc. Nine were buried on the 31st, including a son of Moffitt, her commander.

She then went to Havana, arriving there on the 1st of September, with only thirty-six hands, most of them, including the captain, sick. The captain has putrid fever. The ship is leaky. She was ordered off, and went to sea on the 1st in a heavy thunder storm. The U. S. steamer Penguin was off Havana on the 5th.

Vera Cruz dates to the 1st say that Doblеda has resigned from Juarez cabinet. French troops landed on the 22d, and left for Orizaba. Yellow fever and dysentery have killed 75 per cent. on the French vessels. The Amazon, whose complement is 675, had now but 40 men left.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

The last of the wounded at Centreville, 225, arrived here, to-day. About fifty places are occupied in and about Alexandria for hospitals.

The action, yesterday, of the 8th Illinois cavalry was with 800 of Col. Ashby's old cavalry. It took place between Pooleville and Darnestown. The rebels had fifteen killed and wounded, including one captain. This forenoon Farrensworth again met a portion of them at Clarksburg and took 30 prisoners. They have already arrived at headquarters.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 9.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 6th has the following:—There are now sixty-eight of Pope's commissioned officers and one of his surgeons in confinement here. They are not considered prisoners of war. An aid of Gen. Burnside is, however, placed in that category.

An unusually large number of federal schooners were visible off Charleston bar, S. C., early on Tuesday morning.

In the battle of Friday Gen. Ewell was shot through the knee. Gen. Trumblie was wounded in the foot, and Gen. Tallinters in arm, neck and leg.

The Columbia, South Carolina, Guardian says: Gen. Beauregard on reporting for duty was assigned to that department, which it believes includes Charleston and its defences.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

Specials state that an officer just arrived from Poolesville, early Wednesday morning, states that a large party of Stuart's cavalry came down to Edward's Ferry with the intention of recrossing to the Virginia side, but the attempt was repulsed by forces under Gen. Keyes, who had occupied that place last night, and retreated towards Frederick again, with the loss of from 80 to 100 of their forces taken prisoners.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 8.

To-day, matters here are assumin a more warlike appearance. The corps of Gens. Banks and Sumner passed through here, last week, without creating much excitement. This morning the commanding general himself, accompanied by his staff, galloped up to the principal hotel in the village, and made inquiries which led to the supposition that movements of great importance were on tapis. Following Gen. McClellan, came cavalry, artillery and infantry in great numbers, and are still coming. The whole army of the peninsula seems to be on the march in this direction. If reports, this morning, are true we shall need it all in this vicinity. Jackson is said to have established his headquarters at Frederick, 28 miles distant.

Hill is reported at Poolesville. The whole rebel army is said to be marching on Harrisburg. McClellan's presence leads many to suppose that he is to assume the offensive at once, and attack the enemy in the rear. Our army has been drawn up in line of battle for the past three days, about three miles from this place. It covers the roads to Poolesville and to Frederick, and when McClellan is ready, a column will probably move down both of these roads and assume the offensive.

About 7 o'clock last night, Monday, two companies of the 4th regular cavalry, B and F, were out on reconnoissance, when they surprised, or thought they did, about 70 or 80 of the enemy, near a piece of woods, in the vicinity of Poolesville. They immediately charged on them, but from all around rose up infantry and cavalry, to the number of 1500. Our men were almost upon them before they could check their horses. Two field pieces were drawn out of the woods and several rounds fired. Our men falling back, they retreated to their reserves. The enemy declined following. Seven were wounded on our side, three or four seriously and one mortally.

I hear this morning that the enemy have taken possession of several of the important points on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

Tribune says, editorially: The latest public intelligence is that the army is concentrating at Rockville, but from private information we learn that a disposition of the forces have been made with reference to further movements.

Senator Lane and other prominent Indianans who were here a few days ago on a mission from Gov. Morton, have returned with "no" for an answer. Gov. Morton desired authority to arm and uniform the new regiments from his state, by making requisitions directly instead of through the general government, and to select the generals to lead them.

Baltimore American of yesterday says: The intelligence we give this morning indicates an admission that the rebel army had taken a western route towards Hagerstown. When the enemy moves from Frederick towards Hagerstown, it is virtually turning his back on Baltimore and Washington, and moving to a point where he can reach the Potomac at Williamsport by a march of but seven miles. While his infantry has partly moved west, his cavalry is scouring towards the border of York county, Pennsylvania.

Statements received from correspondents of New York papers as to the force of the rebels who have crossed into Marlyand, entirely disagree with accounts that have been received here from fugitives from Frederick county. No one who has arrived here speak of having seen more than 15,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

It is said that Halleck states that the defenses of Washington are so complete as to render its capture impossible.

C. M. Clay is here. Reports that he intends to resign his commission as brigadier general is incorrect. He reported himself for duty, to-day, at the war department, and is now awaiting orders. It is understood he will be appointed temporarily to an important command in the army now in this vicinity, preparatory to being assigned to a command west of the Mississippi.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

In the trot, to-day, Fillingham beat Ethan Allen in two straight heats—time 2:24 and 2:26¼.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

The correspondence between the so called national war committee of this city, J. C. Fremont, and the secretary of war, is published. The first contains a resolution of the said committee requesting Fremont, if government should sanction it, to take command with Gen. Mitchell of an army corps of 50,000 men, to be raised from the different states; to which the secretary replied, that Gen. Mitchell has been assigned a command, and that the raising of volunteers in New York had been assigned to the governor, who is faithfully performing his duty.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10.

The rebels, it is presumed, have arrived at some point on the Northern Central road, as the telegraph line has been tampered with, and the words "damned Yankee" heard by the operator here.

Gen. Wool has been assigned to the command of all troops north of the Susquehanna. Within twenty-four hours 20,000 men will be in the Cumberland valley, and before Jackson can reach Chambersburg he will be required to meet and overcome 50,000 Pennsylvania yeomanry.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 10.

The republican convention, to-day, nominated the present state officers for re-election amidst loud applause.

ALBANY, Sept. 10.

The democratic state convention met at noon to day. Hon. Horatio Seymour was nominated by acclamation for governor.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.

Flour receipts 19,050 barrels, market dull but unchanged. Sales 8,000 barrels, 5,00a 5,20 super western; 5,35a5,60 common to medium extra western brands. Wheat receipts 207,351 bushels, market heavy and 1a2c lower; sales 120,000 bushels, 1,05a 1,14 Chicago spring; 1,08a1,15 Milwaukee club; 1,16a1,18 amber Iowa.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.

The Inquirer of this city has a special dispatch from Poolesville, saying that our troops occupied Sugar Loaf mountain.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10—midnight.

A state messenger has sent intelligence amounting in substance to the following: He reached a position on the mountains above Frederick, and by means of a glass saw all that was going on in town. He says there was evidently a movement of troops in the direction of Middletown and Boonesboro' going on. Farmers informed him that a forward movement began at 3 o'clock this morning, supposed to be about 20,000 strong. He saw three regiments of infantry, one of cavalry and 18 cannon, and a large number of wagons at Boonesboro'.

The soldiers looked ragged, shoeless and hatless. A mail carrier captured, says great numbers threw themselves down in the middle of the road, attacked with bilious colic caused by eating green corn. A skirmish occurred between the Michigan cavalry and Virginia cavalry leading to Boonesboro. They say Jackson leads the column. The rebel pickets were within a mile and a half of Hagerstown at eight o'clock this evening. The main body appears to be going between Boonesboro and Sharpsburg, eight miles from Hagerstown.

The rebel pickets uniformly told the farmers that Jackson leads the army, and the Cumberland valley is their destination. All manner of rumors are in circulation here, with regard to a great battle having been fought. I can only say with certainty that no intelligence of this character has been received by telegraph or otherwise.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY AT POMPEII.—An important archæological discovery has just been made at Pompeii, of a mill with a quantity of corn in excellent preservation, and an oven with eighty-one loaves, arranged in rows, and but slightly affected by the heat of the lava, having been protected by a quantity of ashes which had covered the iron door fitted to the mouth of the oven. These loaves have all been got out entire; a large iron shovel for introducing loaves into the oven has also been found on the spot, with a remnant of its wooden handle. This is the first discovery of the kind on record.—Gallignani.

"Come, Bob, get up," said an indulgent father to his hopeful son, the other morning, "remember, the early bird catches the worm." "What do I care for worms," replied the young hopeful, "mother wont let me go a fishing."

GEN. POPE.—Nearly all the correspondents from Washington say that Gen. Pope proved himself a failure in the late battles. On the battle field he hardly knew the whereabouts of his own army. It will be remembered that Pope was selected by the influences at Washington, and among these the most active was Secretary Seward, in order to supercede Gen. Fremont, who with an inferior force had just driven Stonewall Jackson out of the Shenandoah valley.—The people have not gained much by this movement. The north is now invaded, because of the blundering incompetency of generals who have been favorites at Washington. When the government dismiss our inefficient and incompetent generals of every grade, there will be some hope for the nation's life.—Wisconsin.

"Is anybody waiting on you?" said a polite dry-goods clerk to a girl from the country. "Yes, sir," said the blushing damsel, "that's my feller outside. He wouldn't come in."

The men of the 24th regiment, before they left Camp Sigel, allotted $5,415 per month of their pay to their families and friends at home. This is something more than one-fourth of the monthly pay going to a regiment.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1862, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of national trial and peril, will sustain the state and federal administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserved, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected throughout every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the republicans in electing delegates to this convention.

Each Assembly and Senatorial district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention.

Dated August 6, 1862.

From the Thirteenth Regiment.

The following is a copy of a dispatch received last evening, (Wednesday):

FORT DONELSON, Sept. 10, 1862.

To EDITORS JANESVILLE GAZETTE:—We have recaptured Clarksville, and returned to Fort Donelson. No serious casualties in the Thirteenth. WM. RUGER.

The News.

The rebels are reported to be moving from Frederick towards Hagerstown, having arrived within a mile and a half of that place. Jackson leads the column. The direction taken by them indicates that they are not going to Baltimore or Philadelphia. It may be that they will recross the Potomac at Harper's Ferry, and, after having supplied themselves with food and plunder, go back by the Shenandoah valley.

Possibly they mean to stop some time in the Cumberland valley, as their soldiers declare. Gen. McClellan commands the army sent against them. He was at Rockville Monday, ten miles from Washington.

The intelligence from Cincinnati is exciting. If a battle took place this morning, as predicted, it would have been known before this time.

The True Sign of Military Vigor.

It would naturally be supposed that in times of disaster to the Union arms, the president would think of the aid to the cause which might be obtained by emancipating the slaves. In hours of adversity the nation ought look around for friends, and who would more likely lend us a helping hand than the four millions of bondmen who hope for the boon of freedom at our hands?

Perhaps the President does think of this matter, but he does not act, and thought without action is dead. Those who are specially the defenders of all that the administration does, and every thing it does not do, tell us that it would be ridiculous to issue proclamations of freedom, now, when we are beaten, and the enemy in triumphant force at the very doors of the capitol. So, according to these apologists of do-nothing, now is not the time; wait awhile till we have power to enforce a decree of emancipation, say they.

But we shall hear these same persons, on occasions when the armies of the Union are victorious, reason somewhat in this way: "Now that treason is put down in this region, a proclamation of emancipation is useless, because we do not need the aid of the slave—we have defeated the rebels without them; let us conciliate the slaveholding rebels who have "taken the oath," so that they will be friends, and become again obedient citizens; if we abolish slavery now, we shall exasperate them so that they will rebel again; let us, who hate proclamations, issue just this one, of amnesty for all past offences; we then shall induce repentant traitors to vote with us in the great Union party which we are forming."

In this way it will be perceived, that this class of ultra conservatives, mean to get rid of emancipation altogether, and of all punishment of traitors. They are willing to risk the very existence of the government to see if they cannot put down the rebellion without destroying slavery. No matter what ruin and devastation of life and property stares us in the face, they are looking forward to the political status of the rebels, "after the deluge." Until this idea is driven out of the brains of our president and his cabinet, if it exists there, as it does in the thoughts of their most approved defenders, the same series of disasters will follow our arms. Emancipation may not now be able to save us; it may be too late, because the four millions of slaves are losing all confidence in us, but we desire to see it adopted as the policy of the administration, because it would be a sign of vigor, an index to tell us that earnest, unsparing war is to be waged upon the vile enemies of our country. And until we see this sign, we shall have doubts of the thorough determination of our military authorities to use every means allowed us by the laws of war. When we see emancipation, all other shing will follow, and not till then.

AN ADJOURNED COURT.—The circuit court of Green county was adjourned last week because none of the attorneys had a license, and no provision had been made for obtaining one.

General Pope's Report.

The official report of Gen. Pope has been published by himself, after the war department had refused to receive it. He charges Fitz John Porter with refusing to obey a written order to attack the enemy in flank, on Friday, whereby Jackson would have been defeated, before the forces of Lee could have reached him. Gen. Pope als affirms that McClellan refused to supply him with forage when his horses had been without food for two days, unless he would send wagons and a guard to bring them up, while Alexandria was swarming with McClellan's troops. He also accuses Gen. Griffin with withholding his command from the contest, and while the battle was raging occupied his attention in denouncing the commanding general to a promiscuous crowd. Gen. Pope attributes the whole disaster to the failure of the army of the Potomac to co-operate with him.

The country will be as much chagrined at this disclosure, as at the defeat. These are the generals to whom the destiines of the country are confided! Can we have confidence in the future while disobedience of orders, by high officers, goes unpunished? If Gen. Pope has made false charges, why give him another command? If he tells the truth, why not order McClellan, Porter and Griffin to trial and punishment? Is the President afraid to permit an examination into this case? We cannot answer these questions, but they suggest themselves to everybod v.

☞ The Volksblatt of Cincinnati, asserts that at the battle of Warrenton Gen. Sigel did attempt to shoot Gen. McDowell for treachery. The story had before this account appeared been generally discredited, but the Rochester (New York) Democrat bears the following independent testimony to its truth. It says: "We are told, on what seems to be good authority, that there is a letter in this city written by an officer who was an eye witness of the circumstance which he describes, stating that during the fight Gen. McDowell took from his pocket a white handkerchief which he attached to the end of his sword and waved it aloft as if signaling to some one. Gen. Sigel observing the act, rode up and demanded McDowell's reason for such conduct. McDowell replied that it was none of his business, at the same time cursing him as a 'd—d Dutchman;' whereupon Sigel drew a pistol and fired at McDowell, the ball striking the latter's sword hilt and glancing off."

The Western Indian Troubles.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 9.

A gentleman just from Council Bluffs informs me that the rumors of Indian troubles and the alarm of the inhabitants are not exaggerated. Many citizens of Sioux City and settlers of the surrounding country are leaving, some of whom had arrived at Council Bluffs before he left. His opinion is that it is a combined movement of the western and north-western tribes. He bases it partly on the fact that tribes hitherto hostile are now friends. A large delegation of Otoes, from Kansas, lately passed up to visit the Sioux, Pawnees and Puncas. Long at war, they have recently become reconciled. This gentleman has been long on the frontier, and his opinions are entitled to weight. Great apprehension, he informs me, is felt at Omaha.

A party of the 29th regiment has gone to Sioux City. The remainder will go when the companies form. Five hundred mounted men the governor is authorized to send by the legislature. The state will furnish equipments.

A company of mounted men to go to the frontier from here is full. It will start day after to-morrow.

Five families passed through here to-day from frontier counties. They are moving out in consequence of the Indian troubles.

LEAVENWORTH, Ks., Sept. 9.

Intelligence from Dacotah and the Upper Missouri indicates serious Indian hostilities. Gov. Jayne, of Dacotah, issued a proclamation on the 30th ult., calling on the settlers to organize. Two men, Judge Amsdon and his son, had already been killed. Gen. Blunt received a dispatch yesterday from Gov. Jayne, dated Sioux City, Sept. 6, which says the Indians made an attack that morning within three miles of Yankton, the capital of the territory. The courier bringing the dispatch to Sioux City, with an escort of ten men, had a fight with twenty Indians ten miles from Yankton. The governor calls for a regiment and arms and ammunition, as a general Indian war is feared.

OMAHA, N. T., Sept. 9.

Powerful bands of Indians are threatening the northern settlements of this territory. The settlers are getting alarmed and coming in with their families. There is no excitement and no cause for alarm in this locality.

Acting Gov. Paddock has telegraphed the Secretary of War, offering sufficient militia to hold the Indians in check along the Nebraska border. The militia is being rapidly organized and drilled.

It is believed that a moderate force, properly distributed along the border, will be an adequate provision against Indian incursions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.

The British Colonist, of the 3d, believes that a war is pending between the whites and Indians on the northwest coast.

Living not a thousand miles from here are an old man and his son, both of whom are a little given to "oups," a very unusual thing in this vicinity, by the way. A short time since it happened they became very "happy" together, and after a short season of "enjoyment" together, something occurred to ruffle the even "current of their minds"—in other words, they got mad at each other. Bitter words passed between them, till finally the son, enraged, exclaimed:

"Father, you're a miserable ol' coot; if ye 'as dead I wouldn't go t'yr fun'ral."

"Now, see 'ere, Ward," replied the old man, "you shouldn't feel so torze me. I don't feel so torze you. Now if you should die, I'd tend yer fun'ral—it's pleasure."

The Buffalo Express relates the following "affecting" incident:

A gentleman of this city wishing to present one of the officers of the 110th regiment with a useful and handsome testimonial of his regard, purchased a splendid field glass (price $50) for that purpose. He then proceeded to the camp, and having found his man, who was sitting at a table hard at work writing, he laid the glass before him and made the following stirring and well-timed presentation speech:

"There's that thing."

To which the surprised recipient replied by rising, and after looking at the present with admiring eye, exclaimed:

"Golly, aint it nice."

In California a "shower" continued about three weeks, when it "set in to rain."

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

CAIRO, Sept. 10.

Special to Chicago Journal.—On Friday last the 6th Illinois cavalry, under Colonel Grierson, met a body of confederates sixteen miles from Holly Springs, Mississippi, and a sharp engagement ensued, in which the confederates lost a lieutenant.

The same federal force, on Sunday, had a fight at Coldwater, with a large force of rebels, which lasted several hours. The enemy was repulsed and driven across the stream, the Union forces capturing a large number of horses, negroes and eighty prisoners. The confederates were seen to carry away their dead while the battle was progressing.

The Vicksburg Whig, of the 2d, says that sixty-five Yankee prisoners were paroled yesterday, taken ten miles up the river, and put on board the Lancaster. It also reports the Essex at Natchez, together with a transport called the Anglo-American.

Since the recent disasters in Virginia, the Grenada Appeal confidently expects an armistice, to be followed by a compromise, and terms of permanent dissolution.

When our forces entered Clarksville they fired on the rebels, who ran off, leaving behind some horses, arms, a hundred boxes of hard bread, two hundred boxes of crackers, and one thousand bales of hay. Several stragglers were made prisoners.

Colonels Lowe and Ransom, with their forces, returned to Fort Donelson last night.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The news from the front is, and it comes from a reliable source, that Gen. Heath and staff, with 1000 cavalry and two regiments of infantry, are two miles south of Fort Mitchell, and in plain sight of the opening of the woods. The force beyond them is not known. Skirmishing is going on. Our pickets have brought in two of the rebel mounted scouts. The enemy are getting in position. Our army are drawn up in line of battle, and are laying on their arms. A fight is expected by daylight.

A flag of truce met Gen. Heath, fifteen miles from the city yesterday afternoon. It covered nurses going to Richmond to take care of our wounded, etc. Heath refused but Kirby Smith passed it.

Our pickets are now in sight of the enemy's pickets about twelve miles from the city.

There is a rumor that the rebels are approaching the river four miles below. Many think there will be a fight before night, and others regard the movement as a feint.

Wallace will soon seek a fight if the rebels do not come up.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

The steamer Columbia has arrived.

The Havana correspondent of the associated press states that the pirate steamer Ovito, or Florida now called, is a wooden steamer of slow speed and has iron plates in her hold to be plated with. She left Nassau August 6th for Green Key, where she mounted her armament of three 68-pounders, and then went to Cardinas, where she was ordered off by the authorities, who placed a war steamer on each side of her, allowing but the doctor to leave her or go aboard. A number of seamen from Havana had arrived there, and were arrested and imprisoned. Yellow fever prevailed aboard. She has lost many of her crew by sickness, desertion, etc. Nine were buried on the 31st, including a son of Moffitt, her commander.

She then went to Havana, arriving there on the 1st of September, with only thirty-six hands, most of them, including the captain, sick. The captain has putrid fever. The ship is leaky. She was ordered off, and went to sea on the 1st in a heavy thunder storm. The U. S. steamer Penguin was off Havana on the 5th.

Vera Cruz dates to the 1st say that Doblеda has resigned from Juarez cabinet. French troops landed on the 22d, and left for Orizaba. Yellow fever and dysentery have killed 75 per cent. on the French vessels. The Amazon, whose complement is 675, had now but 40 men left.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

The last of the wounded at Centreville, 225, arrived here, to-day. About fifty places are occupied in and about Alexandria for hospitals.

The action, yesterday, of the 8th Illinois cavalry was with 800 of Col. Ashby's old cavalry. It took place between Pooleville and Darnestown. The rebels had fifteen killed and wounded, including one captain. This forenoon Farrensworth again met a portion of them at Clarksburg and took 30 prisoners. They have already arrived at headquarters.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 9.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 6th has the following:—There are now sixty-eight of Pope's commissioned officers and one of his surgeons in confinement here. They are not considered prisoners of war. An aid of Gen. Burnside is, however, placed in that category.

An unusually large number of federal schooners were visible off Charleston bar, S. C., early on Tuesday morning.

In the battle of Friday Gen. Ewell was shot through the knee. Gen. Trumble was wounded in the foot, and Gen. Tallinters in arm, neck and leg.

The Columbia, South Carolina, Guardian says: Gen. Beauregard on reporting for duty was assigned to that department, which it believes includes Charleston and its defences.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

Specials state that an officer just arrived from Poolesville, early Wednesday morning, states that a large party of Stuart's cavalry came down to Edward's Ferry with the intention of recrossing to the Virginia side, but the attempt was repulsed by forces under Gen. Keyes, who had occupied that place last night, and retreated towards Frederick again, with the loss of from 80 to 100 of their forces taken prisoners.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Sept. 8.

To-day, matters here are assumin a more warlike appearance. The corps of Gens. Banks and Sumner passed through here, last week, without creating much excitement. This morning the commanding general himself, accompanied by his staff, galloped up to the principal hotel in the village, and made inquiries which led to the supposition that movements of great importance were on tapis. Following Gen. McClellan, came cavalry, artillery and infantry in great numbers, and are still coming. The whole army of the peninsula seems to be on the march in this direction. If reports, this morning, are true we shall need it all in this vicinity. Jackson is said to have established his headquarters at Frederick, 28 miles distant.

Hill is reported at Poolesville. The whole rebel army is said to be marching on Harrisburg. McClellan's presence leads many to suppose that he is to assume the offensive at once, and attack the enemy in the rear. Our army has been drawn up in line of battle for the past three days, about three miles from this place. It covers the roads to Poolesville and to Frederick, and when McClellan is ready, a column will probably move down both of these roads and assume the offensive.

About 7 o'clock last night, Monday, two companies of the 4th regular cavalry, B and F, were out on reconnoisance, when they surprised, or thought they did, about 70 or 80 of the enemy, near a piece of woods, in the vicinity of Poolesville. They immediately charged on them, but from all around rose up infantry and cavalry, to the number of 1500. Our men were almost upon them before they could check their horses. Two field pieces were drawn out of the woods and several rounds fired. Our men falling back, they retreated to their reserves. The enemy declined following. Seven were wounded on our side, three or four seriously and one mortally.

I hear this morning that the enemy have taken possession of several of the important points on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

Tribune says, editorially: The latest public intelligence is that the army is concentrating at Rockville, but from private information we learn that a disposition of the forces have been made with reference to further movements.

Senator Lane and other prominent Indianians who were here a few days ago on a mission from Gov. Morton, have returned with "no" for an answer. Gov. Morton desired authority to arm and uniform the new regiments from his state, by making requisitions directly instead of through the general government, and to select the generals to lead them.

Baltimore American of yesterday says: The intelligence we give this morning indicates an admission that the rebel army had taken a western route towards Hagerstown. When the enemy moves from Frederick towards Hagerstown, it is virtually turning his back on Baltimore and Washington, and moving to a point where he can reach the Potomac at Williamsport by a march of but seven miles. While his infantry has partly moved west, his cavalry is scouring towards the border of York county, Pennsylvania.

Statements received from correspondents of New York papers as to the force of the rebels who have crossed into Marlyand, entirely disagree with accounts that have been received here from fugitives from Frederick county. No one who has arrived here speak of having seen more than 15,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.

It is said that Halleck states that the defenses of Washington are so complete as to render its capture impossible.

C. M. Clay is here. Reports that he intends to resign his commission as brigadier general is incorrect. He reported himself for duty, to-day, at the war department, and is now awaiting orders. It is understood he will be appointed temporarily to an important command in the army now in this vicinity, preparatory to being assigned to a command west of the Mississippi.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

In the trot, to-day, Fillingham beat Ethan Allen in two straight heats—time 2:24 and 2:26¾.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.

The correspondence between the so-called national war committee of this city, J. C. Fremont, and the secretary of war, is published. The first contains a resolution of the said committee requesting Fremont, if government should sanction it, to take command with Gen. Mitchell of an army corps of 50,000 men, to be raised from the different states; to which the secretary replied, that Gen. Mitchell has been assigned a command, and that the raising of volunteers in New York had been assigned to the governor, who is faithfully performing his duty.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10.

The rebels, it is presumed, have arrived at some point on the Northern Central road, as the telegraph line has been tampered with, and the words "damned Yankee" heard by the operator here.

Gen. Wool has been assigned to the command of all troops north of the Susquehanna. Within twenty-four hours 20,000 men will be in the Cumberland valley, and before Jackson can reach Chambersburg he will be required to meet and overcome 50,000 Pennsylvania yeomanry.

WORCESTER, Mass., Sept. 10.

The republican convention, to-day, nominated the present state officers for re-election amidst loud applause.

ALBANY, Sept. 10.

The democratic state convention met at noon to-day. Hon. Horatio Seymour was nominated by acclamation for governor.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.

Flour receipts 19,050 barrels, market dull but unchanged. Sales 8,000 barrels, 5,00a 5,20 super western; 5,35a5,60 common to medium extra western brands. Wheat receipts 207,354 bushels, market heavy and 1a2c lower; sales 120,000 bushels, 1,05a 1,14 Chicago spring; 1,08a1,15 Milwaukee club; 1,16a1,18 amber Iowa.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.

The Inquirer of this city has a special dispatch from Poolesville, saying that our troops occupied Sugar Loaf mountain.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 10—midnight.

A state messenger has sent intelligence amounting in substance to the following: He reached a position on the mountains above Frederick, and by means of a glass saw all that was going on in town. He says there was evidently a movement of troops in the direction of Middletown and Boonesboro' going on. Farmers informed him that a forward movement began at 3 o'clock this morning, supposed to be about 20,000 strong. He saw three regiments of infantry, one of cavalry and 18 cannon, and a large number of wagons at Boonesboro'.

The soldiers looked ragged, shoeless and hatless. A mail carrier captured, says great numbers threw themselves down in the middle of the road, attacked with billious colic caused by eating green corn. A skirmish occurred between the Michigan cavalry and Virginia cavalry leading to Boonesboro. They say Jackson leads the column. The rebel pickets were within a mile and a half of Hagerstown at eight o'clock this evening. The main body appears to be going between Boonesboro and Sharpsburg, eight miles from Hagerstown.

The rebel pickets uniformly told the farmers that Jackson leads the army, and the Cumberland valley is their destination. All manner of rumors are in circulation here, with regard to a great battle having been fought. I can only say with certainty that no intelligence of this character has been received by telegraph or otherwise.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY AT POMPEII.—An important archæological discovery has just been made at Pompeii, of a mill with a quantity of corn in excellent preservation, and an oven with eighty-one loaves, arranged in rows, and but slightly affected by the heat of the lava, having been protected by a quantity of ashes which had covered the iron door fitted to the mouth of the oven. These loaves have all been got out entire; a large iron shovel for introducing loaves into the oven has also been found on the spot, with a remnant of its wooden handle. This is the first discovery of the kind on record.—Gallignani.

"Come, Bob, get up," said an indulgent father to his hopeful son, the other morning, "remember, the early bird catches the worm." "What do I care for worms," replied the young hopeful, "mother wont let me go a fishing."

GEN. POPE.—Nearly all the correspondents from Washington say that Gen. Pope proved himself a failure in the late battles. On the battle field he hardly knew the whereabouts of his own army. It will be remembered that Pope was selected by the influences at Washington, and among these the most active was Secretary Seward, in order to supercede Gen. Fremont, who with an inferior force had just driven Stonewall Jackson out of the Shenandoah valley.—The people have not gained much by this movement. The north is now invaded, because of the blundering incompetency of generals who have been favorites at Washington. When the government dismiss our inefficient and incompetent generals of every grade, there will be some hope for the nation's life.—Wisconsin.

"Is anybody waiting on you?" said a polite dry-goods clerk to a girl from the country. "Yes, sir," said the blushing damsel, "that's my feller outside. He wouldn't come in."

The men of the 24th regiment, before they left Camp Sigel, allotted $5,415 per month of their pay to their families and friends at home. This is something more than one-fourth of the monthly pay going to a regiment.

MABIE'S MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS.—This "institution" made a fine display as it entered the city this morning. There will be an evening exhibition, commencing a 7 o'clock, and as the attraction of a large collection of animals is added to the usual performances of a circus, there will be a crowd in the tent. Janesville is "great" on these kind of shows, and Mabie has got a good one.

THE TWELFTH BATTERY.—Lieut. Harlow's command were to have left St. Louis for Corinth, at three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday. They go by steamboat to Columbus, Ky., and from thence by railroad to their destination.

☞ A testament picked up in the street has been left at this office.

SINKING AGAIN.—The track of the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railway over the Door Creek marsh, between Stoughton and McFarland, has sunk again. Last Saturday the track was three feet under water, and though repaired so as to allow an engine to pass Sunday evening, it commenced sinking again Monday evening. The western mail did not come in this morning, in consequence of the inability of a train to pass.

REFUGEES FROM MINNESOTA.—A large number of women and children passed through this city on the cars, last night, from the western borders of Minnesota, bound east, to remain with their friends during the winter.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philip Workman, his wife and son were riding in a light wagon, in Brodhead on Sunday, the son driving, when the latter, hitting one of the horses slightly with a whip, they started forward suddenly, precipitating the elder Mr. Workman and his wife backwards out of the wagon. Both of them were so much injured by the fall that they died, Mr. Workman on Monday, and the old lady on Wednesday, and both were buried in one grave.

☞ Senator Wilkinson has gone to Washington to endeavor to procure an order for transferring a Wisconsin regiment of cavalry to the Indian country.

☞ The Baraboo, Wisconsin, Republic says that a man named H. O. Cass, whose residence is a mile from Spring Green, is in custody, charged with killing a boy aged 13 years, named Robert Davis. The murderer thought the boy was stealing his melons and discharged his gun, loaded with buckshot, at the boy, who was with two companions, when about twenty feet from him. The charge took effect in the boy's face, under the eyes, killing him almost instantly.

The Blood is the Life.—No more shall the poor sufferers in our country languish, their constitutions racked and torn by strong and dangerous mineral medicines; they will come to the fountain of health, found in simple herbs and roots from nature's storehouse. THE MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS, of innocent mountain plants composed, will reach and stop their distress, and cause the blood, renewed and cleansed, to carry through the body the elements of health; building up the broken constitution, and carrying life and health, where but for them would have been the wreck of hope—the feeble moan of suffering, at last ended by the cold hand of death. Do not let prejudice overcome your better reason; do not look upon these Pills as only like others; do not let your despair, after trying everything else, prevent you from trying these. The blood must be pure, and then sickness is impossible. What a great and yet simple truth is this! It appeals to the common sense of all; it is the great key-stone of the healing art. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will purify and cleanse it as sure as the sun will rise to-morrow.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers. au16daw4w

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "COSTAR'S" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5 we would have it. We have tried poisons, but they effect nothing; but "Costar's" article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and Bed-Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—[Medina (O.) Gazette.

MABIE'S MENAGRIE AND CIRCUS.—This "institution" made a fine display as it entered the city this morning. There will be an evening exhibition, commencing a 7 o'clock, and as the attraction of a large collection of animals is added to the usual performances of a circus, there will be a crowd in the tent. Janesville is "great" on these kind of shows, and Mabie has got a good one.

THE TWELFTH BATTERY.—Lieut. Harlow's command were to have left St. Louis for Corinth, at three o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday. They go by steamboat to Columbus, Ky., and from thence by railroad to their destination.

☞ A testament picked up in the street has been left at this office.

SINKING AGAIN.—The track of the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien railway over the Door Creek marsh, between Stoughton and McFarland, has sunk again. Last Saturday the track was three feet under water, and though repaired so as to allow an engine to pass Sunday evening, it commenced sinking again Monday evening. The western mail did not come in this morning, in consequence of the inability of a train to pass.

REFUGEES FROM MINNESOTA.—A large number of women and children passed through this city on the cars, last night, from the western borders of Minnesota, bound east, to remain with their friends during the winter.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philip Workman, his wife and son were riding in a light wagon, in Brodhead on Sunday, the son driving, when the latter, hitting one of the horses slightly with a whip, they started forward suddenly, precipitating the elder Mr. Workman and his wife backwards out of the wagon. Both of them were so much injured by the fall that they died, Mr. Workman on Monday, and the old lady on Wednesday, and both were buried in one grave.

☞ Senator Wilkinson has gone to Washington to endeavor to procure an order for transferring a Wisconsin regiment of cavalry to the Indian country.

☞ The Baraboo, Wisconsin, Republic says that a man named H. O. Cass, whose residence is a mile from Spring Green, is in custody, charged with killing a boy aged 13 years, named Robert Davis. The murderer thought the boy was stealing his melons and discharged his gun, loaded with buckshot, at the boy, who was with two companions, when about twenty feet from him. The charge took effect in the boy's face, under the eyes, killing him almost instantly.

The Blood is the Life.—No more shall the poor sufferers in our country languish, their constitutions racked and torn by strong and dangerous mineral medicines; they will come to the fountain of health, found in simple herbs and roots from nature's storehouse. THE MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS, of innocent mountain plants composed, will reach and stop their distress, and cause the blood, renewed and cleansed, to carry through the body the elements of health; building up the broken constitution, and carrying life and health, where but for them would have been the wreck of hope—the feeble moan of suffering, at last ended by the cold hand of death. Do not let prejudice overcome your better reason; do not look upon these Pills as only like others; do not let your despair, after trying everything else, prevent you from trying these. The blood must be pure, and then sickness is impossible. What a great and yet simple truth is this! it appeals to the common sense of all; it is the great key-stone of the healing art. JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will purify and cleanse it as sure as the sun will rise to-morrow.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Medicine Dealers. au16daw4w

HOUSEKEEPERS—troubled with vermin, need be so no longer, if they use "COSTAR'S" Exterminators. We have used it to our satisfaction, and if a box cost $5 we would have it. We have tried poisons, but they effect nothing; but "Costar's" article knocks the breath out of Rats, Mice, Roaches, and Bed-Bugs, quicker than we can write it. It is in great demand all over the country.—[Medina [O.] Gazette.

MORE GRAIN and provisions are destroyed annually in Grant County, by vermin, than would pay for tons of this Rat and Insect Killer.—[Lancaster [Wis.] Herald.

DR. J BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilirating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

SINGER & CO.'S STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand, so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

General Election Notice.

FOR ROCK COUNTY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at the General Election to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the state of Wisconsin, on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday, being the fourth day of November next the following officers are to be elected, to wit:

A Representative in Congress for the Second Congressional District, for the term of two years from the fourth day of March next.

A State Senator for the Seventeenth Senate District, in the place of Ezra A. Foot.

A Sheriff in place of S. J. M. Putnam.

A Register of Deeds in place of K. W. Bemis.

A Clerk of the Circuit Court in place of Levi Alden.

A County Treasurer in place of S. Holdredge, Jr.

A District Attorney in place of I. C. Sloan.

A Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in place of S. L. James.

A County Surveyor in place of Edward Ruger, and

A Coroner in place of John E. Young, whose several terms of office will expire on the first Monday of January, A. D. 1863.

A Member of Assembly in and for each of the following Assembly Districts in said county of Rock, to-wit: Comprising 1st. the towns of Centre, Janesville, Magnolia, Porter and Union. 2d. the towns of Fulton, Harmony, Lima and Milton. 3d. the towns of Bradford, Clinton, Johnstown and La Prairie. 4th. the city of Beloit and the towns of Turtle and Beloit. 5th, the city of Janesville. 6th. the towns of Avon, Newark, Plymouth, Rock and Spring Valley.

At the same election, the question will be taken upon the approval by the people, of the amendment proposed to Section five, Article five, of the Constitution of the state of Wisconsin, by Chapter 202 of the General Laws of 1862 as follows:

AN ACT Providing for a vote of the people on an amendment to the Constitution.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of November, in the year 1862, the qualified electors of this state may vote for or against the amendment of the Constitution agreed to by the last and present legislatures, and published before the last general election, as provided by the Constitution, which amendment is as follows: That Section five of Article five of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 5. The Governor shall receive during his continuance in office, an annual compensation of two thousand five hundred dollars."

SECTION 2. The votes cast on such amendment shall be by a separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly printed or written on each of them, the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution," or "Against the amendment to the Constitution," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the ratification and adoption of such amendment. The ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes for state officers are required by law to be canvassed and returned. Also, the Secretary of State shall immediately on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the state paper, and if a majority of all the electors voting thereon shall vote "for the amendment to the Constitution," such amendment shall be deemed ratified and adopted, and shall go into effect immediately, otherwise it shall be of no force or effect.

Approved April 4, 1862.

At the same election, the question will be taken upon the approval by the people of the amendments proposed to the General Banking Law, by Chapter 203 of the General Laws of 1862, as amended by Chapter 354 of the General Laws of 1862, as follows:

AN ACT To amend Chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, entitled "of the incorporation of Banking Associations"

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No bank or banking association shall demand or receive a greater or higher rate of interest upon any note discounted by such bank or banking association, or for the loan or forbearance of any money, goods or things in action, than seven dollars upon one hundred dollars for one year, and after that rate for a greater or less sum, or for a longer or shorter time Whenever the securities deposited with the State Treasurer to secure the redemption of the circulating notes of any bank, shall be sold in pursuance of sections forty-one and forty-two of said chapter 71 [of the] Revised Statutes, if such securities shall be or have been sold for a sum sufficient to redeem its outstanding notes at par, then the Bank Comptroller shall, after the expiration of three years from the time of sale of such securities, pay over to the legal representative of any such bank, upon application therefor, the surplus derived from the sale of said securities, if any there be remaining in the custody of the Comptroller.

SECTION 2. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, A. D. 1862 at all the places of holding elections in this state for the election of officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people; and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force

SECTION 3. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section, shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words "for amendment to the banking law," or "against amendment to banking law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be returned and canvassed; and the Secretary of State shall, immediately on the completion of said canvass publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session; and he shall also deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject, immediately after the completion of the canvass.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the twentieth day of January, A. D. 1863.

SECTION 5. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Chapter 203 approved April 4, 1862, chapter 354 approved June 17, 1862.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 7 of the Revised Statutes of 1858.

Given under my hand at Janesville, this 11th day of August, A. D. 1862. S. J. M. PUTNAM, au12dtd Sheriff of Rock County.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'
IMPERIAL WINE
BITTERS,

Are made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

to produce
THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7[5]

Singer's Letter A Machine,

Is the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis.

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, badly made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

General Election Notice,
FOR ROCK COUNTY.

Notice is hereby given, that at the General Election to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the state of Wisconsin, on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday, being the fourth day of November next the following officers are to be elected, to wit:

A Representative in Congress for the Second Congressional District, for the term of two years from the fourth day of March next.

A State Senator for the Seventeenth Senate District, in the place of Ezra A. Foot.

A Sheriff in place of S. J. M. Putnam.

A Register of Deeds in place of K. W. Bemis.

A Clerk of the Circuit Court in place of Levi Alden.

A County Treasurer in place of S. Holdredge, Jr.

A District Attorney in place of I. C. Sloan.

A Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in place of S. L. James.

A County Surveyor in place of Edward Ruger, and

A Coroner in place of John E. Young, whose several terms of office will expire on the first Monday of January, A. D. 1863.

A Member of Assembly in and for each of the following Assembly Districts in said county of Rock, to-wit: Comprising 1st. the towns of Centre, Janesville, Magnolia, Porter and Union. 2d. the towns of Fulton, Harmony, Lima and Milton. 3d. the towns of Bradford, Clinton, Johnstown and La Prairie. 4th. the city of Beloit and the towns of Turtle and Beloit. 5th., the city of Janesville. 6th. the towns of Avon, Newark, Plymouth, Rock and Spring Valley.

At the same election, the question will be taken upon the approval by the people, of the amendment proposed to Section five, Article five, of the Constitution of the state of Wisconsin, by Chapter 202 of the General Laws of 1862, as follows:

AN ACT Providing for a vote of the people on an amendment to the Constitution.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of November, in the year 1862, the qualified electors of this state may vote for or against the amendment of the Constitution agreed to by the last and present legislatures, and published before the last general election, as provided by the Constitution, which amendment is as follows: That Section five of Article five of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 5. The Governor shall receive, during his continuance in office, an annual compensation of two thousand five hundred dollars."

Section 2. The votes cast on such amendment shall be by a separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly printed or written on each of them, the words "For the amendment to the Constitution," or "Against the amendment to the Constitution," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the ratification and adoption of such amendment. The ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes for state officers are required by law to be canvassed and returned. Also, the Secretary of State shall immediately on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the state paper, and if a majority of all the electors voting thereon shall vote "for the amendment to the Constitution," such amendment shall be deemed ratified and adopted, and shall go into effect immediately, otherwise it shall be of no force or effect.

Approved April 4, 1862.

At the same election, the question will be taken upon the approval by the people of the amendments proposed to the General Banking Law, by Chapter 206 of the General Laws of 1862, as amended by Chapter 354 of the General Laws of 1862, as follows:

AN ACT To amend Chapter 71 of the Revised Statutes, entitled "of the Incorporation of Banking Associations."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. No bank or banking association shall demand or receive a greater or higher rate of interest upon any note discounted by such bank or banking association, or for the loan or forbearance of any money, goods or things in action, than seven dollars upon one hundred dollars for one year, and after that rate for a greater or less sum, or for a longer or short r time. Whenever the securities deposited with the State Treasurer to secure the redemption of the circulating notes of any bank, shall be sold in pursuance of sections forty-one and forty-two of said chapter 71 [of the] Revised Statutes, if such securities shall be or have been sold for a sum sufficient to redeem its outstanding notes at par, then the Bank Comptroller shall, after the expiration of three years from the time of sale of such securities, pay over to the legal representative of any such bank, upon application therefor, the surplus derived from the sale of said securities, if any there be remaining in the custody of the Comptroller.

Section 2. At the general election to be held on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November, A. D. 1862, at all the places of holding elections in this state for the election of officers required by law then to be elected, the question whether this act shall become a law and go into effect, or in any manner be in force, shall be submitted to the people; and if the same shall be approved by a majority of all the votes cast on the subject, it shall go into effect; otherwise, it shall not go into effect nor be in force.

Section 3. The votes cast on the subject specified in the last preceding section, shall be by separate ballot, and shall have written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on each of them, the words "for amendment to the banking law," or "against amendment to banking law," which words shall indicate the vote for or against the approval of this act; and the ballots so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as the votes cast for state officers are required by law to be returned and canvassed; and the Secretary of State shall, immediately on the completion of said canvass, publish a statement of the result thereof in the official state paper, and shall communicate the same to the next legislature at the commencement of the session; and he shall also deliver to the State Treasurer a certified copy thereof, with a statement of the result of the canvass upon the subject, immediately after the completion of the canvass.

Section 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the twentieth day of January, A. D. 1863.

Section 5. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with or in any way contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Chapter 203 approved April 4, 1862: chapter 354 approved June 17, 1862.

Said election to be conducted, the votes canvassed and returns made, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 7 of the Revised Statutes of 1858.

Given under my hand at Janesville, this 11th day of August, A. D. 1862. S. J. M. PUTNAM,
